

Jonathan Pampolina is a Senior Counsel at the Financial Integrity Group of the IMF's Legal Department. He joined the IMF in 2014 and covers AML/CFT issues and developments in the European Union, the United Kingdom and Ukraine, among others. He also supports implementation and monitoring of IMF policies on correspondent banking, beneficial ownership/entity transparency, and governance/anti-corruption issues. Mr. Pampolina previously clerked at the Supreme Court of the Philippines, provided legal consulting services to the Philippine Department of Interior and Local Government, and did private litigation in Manila. He obtained his Bachelor of Laws from the University of the Philippines, and his Master of Laws from Georgetown University Law Center.