

Helena Abreu Lopes is a lawyer and has been a member of the Court of Auditors of Portugal since 2007. Before, she was Deputy Director Geral and Audit Manager in the same Court.

Ms Lopes has a significant experience in public procurement audit and is now responsible for the audits in the areas of environment, natural resources and european funding.

Among other international cooperation work and responsibilities, she was a member of the ISSAI 130 (INTOSAI Code of Ethics) Review Team and has been chairing the EUROSAI Task Force on Audit & Ethics. This Task Force promotes cooperative work among European SAIs in the field of ethics and audit, contributing to reinforcing, framing and providing robustness to the management of ethical conduct within these institutions and developing practical tools to help SAIs in their ethics related audit work.
