

Tytti Yli-Viikari serves as the Auditor General of Finland since 2016. Prior to her nomination she worked as Deputy Auditor General at the National Audit Office and she has previously worked at the Government Controller's Function and the Budget Department of the Ministry of Finance.

Yli-Viikari is a public audit, public policy evaluation and risk management professional. She is driven by a strong will to enhance good governance and to develop relevant and timely information on public accountability.

Yli-Viikari regularly holds speeches in national and international seminars on themes such as digitalisation, ethics, democracy, trust and the future of public audit. She holds a Master in Public Administration from the French National School of Administration ENA and M.A.s from the College of Europe and from the Panthéon Sorbonne University.