

Fabio D'Aversa, Partner, PwC Luxembourg

Fabio is a macro-economist with a significant experience in macro-economic analysis, public financial management and evaluation.

As financial instruments expert, he has managed numerous assignments for the European Investment Bank (ex-ante methodologies, TAP scoping study, RSFF, Jessica, Jaspers, PPP, EIB FI Bilateral Assistance, EIHA Strategy), as well as relevant assignments for the European Commission (DG ECFIN, DG MARKT, DG REGIO, DG CONNECT).

Fabio is currently overseeing several PwC projects in several EU Members state to conduct ex-ante assessments for financial instruments for the 2014-2020 programming period, and has also delivered specialist Financial Instrument training to EU and MS official.

He is a member of the European Evaluation Society and coordinates the PwC evaluation network.