

Merete Clausen, Head of Unit for Financing on innovation, competitiveness and employment policies, DG Economic and Financial Affairs, European Commission

Merete Clausen has been working for the European Commission since 2006. She is currently Head of the Financing of innovation, competitiveness and employment policies Unit in the Directorate General for Economic and Financial Affairs.

She is responsible for the SME Window part of the European Fund for Strategic Investments and other European innovative instruments designed to support investment in innovative enterprises, SMEs, micro- and social enterprises.

She graduated from the University of Aarhus with a master in law and worked for a number of years in private practice in Copenhagen and Aarhus, Denmark, before joining the EU institutions in 2001.