

Patrycja Wolińska-Bartkiewicz, Managing Director of EU division in Bank Gospodarstwa Krajowego, Polish development bank

Since January 2015 she has been working as Managing Director of the EU fund Division at BGK – the state development bank of Poland.

Patrycja Wolińska-Bartkiewicz graduated from law with distinction from Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin. Since 13 years she has been working in the area of EU funding. She has started her professional career in the local government, where she was responsible for raising EU funds. Later on she worked as a Deputy Director of the Department for Strategy and Regional Development in Marshall Office of Lubelskie Voivodship.

In 2007 Patrycja Wolińska-Bartkiewicz started working for Ministry of Infrastructure first as Advisor to the Minister and starting from 2008 as an Undersecretary of State, where she was coordinating the process of the use of EU funds.

She speaks English and French.