

MARTINA DLABAJOVÁ, MEP (ANO/ALDE)

Martina Dlabajová has been a member of the European Parliament since 2014. She is a Vice-Chair of the Committee on Budgetary Control and active member of the Committee on Employment and Social Affairs. Her own-initiative report on matching skills and jobs highlights the importance of better cooperation between education and business as well as motivation and responsibility of young jobseekers. Recently she was also appointed the rapporteur on New Skills Agenda for Europe. Before joining the European Parliament, she founded and managed several companies in the Czech Republic, Slovakia and Italy. She graduated from the University of Padua, Italy in political science with a specialization in the European integration.